Spread the Warmth - 2nd annual Coat Drive

A Big THANK YOU to all those who donated coats, hats or gloves for our Spread the Warmth annual coat drive!! Your generosity is much appreciated in helping the children and teens of Sidney and Shelby County stay warm this winter! With the POWER donation we have been able to deliver over 80 coats to 6 schools in Shelby County and more requests are being filled as we speak.

Shelby County United Way Happenings...

- 2016 Shelby County United Way Campaign was a great success! Thanks to all your support!
- Winter Wonderland Parade was a huge success. Large amount of people lined the streets on the warm evening with the United Way staff and supporters walking in front of the festively decorated truck.
- The Alpha Center was able to receive a new stove that was funded through the United Way.
- 2-1-1 will be going live Jan.1st, 2017! For individuals who do not know who to call for services they will just have to call 2-1-1, 24 hours a day 365 days a year. We will be able to connect people to resources much quicker. Data will be available to develop future strategies as well.

STAY WARM AND HAVE A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A WONDERFUL NEW YEAR!!
