New Member Spotlight Sara Olding

Current Employer and position: Sidney City Schools; High School English Teacher, CCP Adjunct

Significant others name and children names as well as their ages if applicable: Bryan Olding; Grace (17), Genevieve (15), CJ (10)

Favorite thing to do "Off the Clock": Spend time with family and friends, read great books, and run half marathons

Favorite Book: Depends on the day! I love to read classics, but I also find contemporary nonfiction and memoir a good way to spend time. I just finished Hillbilly Elegy by J.D. Vance and Between the World and Me by Ta-Nehisi Coates

Favorite Food: Anything grilled

Favorite Restaurant: Turtle Club in Naples, Florida

If you could learn to do anything what would it be? Sew. I wish I knew how to sew the way my grandmother could.

What would your autobiography of your life be called? "I'll call you later"

Favorite Quote: "Here's to strong women: may we know them, may we be them, may we raise them,"

Chore you hate to do? cleaning bathrooms

Favorite vacation destination? A beach

Best job you could have besides current/past one? Historian

Why did you join POWER and what do you look forward to doing with the Women's Initiative group?

I am excited to see what kinds of initiatives are already at work in Shelby County and to figure out where I can contribute. I absolutely love to learn new things and particularly enjoy being part of making a positive impact in the lives of others.
